

WHO IS THIS PERSON?

During February, Black History Month, Freedom Plaza has a "Name That Person" contest on RACrep.org. You can find a new picture and a cryptic bio of a famous African American each week.

Enter the name of the person, your name, phone number, and apartment number in the entry form. If you live, work, or are a future resident at Freedom Plaza, you are eligible for a prize, but we invite everyone to participate.

There will be a new contest each week. In the event of multiple correct answers, the prize will be awarded by lottery.

A full bio and the name of the winner will be posted on RACrep.org and the winner's name will be announced in the Weekly following each week's contest.
