

July Housekeeping Committee Report

The new members are on board and working to inspect their assigned areas. The chairman talks regularly to Director Alanis and praises her efforts and those of the housekeeping associates in this difficult work environment. The 2020 Chair is in the process of holding a selection process for 2021 officers for the committee. Given the size of this working committee, meetings in the Club Room are not an option at this time.