OPEN BUSINESS:

Touchtown Updates:

Activity Sign Up User Guide has been distributed. Now residents can sign up for activities. Residents can still use the old way of sign-ups at the programs office or by phone.

The Resident Directory is safe and secure.

Movies Updates:

Saturday movies only in the auditorium, not on FPN. Wednesday movies will continue to be on FPN. Send any movie suggestions to Pearl Birnbaum. Suggest using movies from AARP list. Resident programs will choose two volunteers/month to pick movies.

May: Al Hurlbrink, Carla Nankervis. June: Ginny Ewing, Idalee Rubin

Club Updates:

Trivia will begin on 4/20, the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month in the Club room at 7:15. Traditional Sing-a-Long will now meet on Wednesdays in the card room. (Formerly pub singers) Men's Book Club will now meet in the new Resident Room 4th floor.

Melodies and Mixers (formally Sip & Social), a monthly event, in the Atrium, will be by reservations only. There will be 2 sessions, 45 minutes each, of 75 residents each session. Tables and chairs will be provided on the 2nd floor balcony in addition to the atrium.

Wristbands will be required. Focus will be on music and some small appetizers.

Review of March programming:

Jewelry sale in the auditorium was not well received. St.Patrick's Day Bingo was very successful and well attended.

Non-tech group met. It was suggested the meeting be more in depth. Easter concert was well attended and enjoyed by everyone.
Bus trips will resume in May.
