

RAC VIP COMMITTEE MINUTES

JULY 7, 2021

Club Room

Evelyn Snoeren, Chairperson, called the meeting to order at 2:10 pm.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A quorum was in attendance. Those attending were Evelyn Snoeren, Chairperson; Joan Macholl Secretary, Joe Graff, Ann Graff, Phyllis Black (RAC Rep), Tomi Reneau, Barbara Kirchner, Bridget Guarino was introduced as a new member of the Board.

Joe Graff indicated that there was no interest in Listening Books. There is a magazine published called Choice Magazine which is an audio publication. It is similar to Reader's Digest. It can be downloaded and put on a talking machine. The web site for talking books is <https://nlsbard.doc.gov>

Discssion was held on inviting Bob Schieffer who is a vendor of visual supplies. The time could be with our meeting but from 10 to noon. We would need the room from 9 to 1 pm to allow for set up and shut down.

Evelyn received a group of CD's from one of the local eye dealers. The CD's cover a series of eye problems from Catarrachs, to Dry Eye etc. It is unclear whether we have permission to copy them and distribute them or not? Questions to be answered. Meanwhile Barbara Kirchner will take the CD's and play them and make here recommendations

The Round Table meetings were discussed. More publicity was suggested but the current attendance is at an ideal level.

Discssion was held in reference to a complaint about the committee sending a letter to the Roc Representatives inviting them to contact our President if any of the people on their corridors would like any assistance that we could provide. It appears the objection was that it didn't carry the ROC logo

The Secretary will be making a list for the members that will identify the members of the Vision Impaired Committee on their halls. This will make it easy to deliver information to the members.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted:

Joan Macholl, Secretary

The committee members were thanked for their kind words for the Secretary's husband.
