Members Absent: Stan Zarinsky, Esther Hagen, Carla Nankervis

Meeting called to order at 10:35 am.

OPEN BUSINESS:

Liaison Reports:

- Ginny Ewing - Golf: Tee times now separated by 15 minutes. Now available for life care residents, 10-play cards for 9 holes costing $150.plus tx. or 18 holes for $275. plus tx. Plus 20% discount in the Pro Shop, for residents, on merchandise with FP logo: shirts, hats, etc. The horseshoe track will be removed and replaced with Corn Hole. Basketball hoop will be moved. The 3 hole practice course will be moved toward the pro shop. Golf tournament, for fun, for members and residents: prizes, awards, lunch— Monday 2/7
- Pat Portenga - Pickleball needs more players.
- Janice Harris - Art League Show went well and was well received.

Melodies and Mixers: Will be moved to Monday, once a month, taking the place of wine down on that Monday. Wine down Monday will continue on all other Mondays.

Melodies and Mixers will have a piano player, small appetizers, and a quiet atmosphere for socialization.

Activities Dept: The Committee has assigned liaison for all 62 clubs, to work with the facilitator of each club. Committee voted to give RAC.Org the list of clubs and activities for Touchtown .

Committee agreed that the Speaks Clam Bar trip was successful in the food department, but poorly managed. Not enough seats planned for, residents too crowded together, poorly staffed.

Riggoletto seen at the AMC Regency. Wonderful opera, poor setting and eating arrangements at the AMC. Next time will go to Cine Bistro at Hyde Park.

Bus trip departures: 5 minute rule to wait for late residents for trips . Then bus will leave. There is a 3 day advance notice to be given to cancel any trips and/or resell tickets.

Drama Club: Plaza Players has been disbanded. Joe Birnbaum would like to form a new Drama Club.

Life-long Learning: Some residents have shown interest in a forming a new club, of “Life-Long Learning”. Glenn Spoerl expressed interest and will try to get a club together.

Advisory Group: continues to work on July (30th Anniversary) activities. Themes are being chosen to be “fun and whimsical”. Monte Carlo night and Casino seem to be the favorites.
