

RAC Community Life Services Committee/ Activities Meeting March, 2, 2022

Members Present: Pearl Birnbaum, Maria Martucci, Bill Turcotte, Ginny Ewing, Suzy Burt, Andrea Best, Glenn Spoerl, Janis Harris,, Dave Looney, Stan Zarinsky, Esther Hagen, Carla Nankervis

Members Absent: Pat Portenga

Meeting called to order at 10:30 am.

OPEN BUSINESS:

Letter is being sent to RAC Executive Committee, (Ron Sweet), stating that RAC is overstepping and interfering with clubs and committees. All 64 clubs fall under RAC Activities Committee. A liaison person is assigned to each committee and is in contact with the President and the RAC Activities Committee.

Liaison Reports:

- Bill Turcotte will switch to Art League liaison replacing Janis Harris.
- Dave Looney -aerobics- Pool has only a small group attending. Vespers will be announced in local paper. Bible Study doesn't seem to have a lot of interest at this time. Ginny Ewing - Golf outing went very well.
- Esther Hagen - Residents are still afraid to come to Bridge because of Covid, low attendance. Younger residents do not seem to be interested in Bridge.
- Stan Zarinsky - Socials - Goodson Farm trip was excellent. Valentine's Day Celebration and Valentine's Dance were a big success. Saturday with Judge, E. Michael Isaak, had poor attendance. Mardi Gras Event was well attended: no appetizers, only specialty drink, and music.
- Carla Nankervis - Smaller groups are going well. Trivia has reduced to fewer tables. Writer's Group needs more members.
- Glenn Spoerl - Recruiting will soon begin for School for Seniors.
- Special Interest Group Club - Glenn and Carl Wales will provide for a Great Books Club.

Drama Club update: Joe Birnbaum will be doing a Reader's Play with 9 actors.

Touchtown: Sarah Chambers suggested bios of new residents be on Touchtown. Stan suggested putting new residents on the Weekly. Suzy suggested putting new residents on the back of the monthly birthday list, but only with permission of the resident. Committee voted NOT to have new resident bios on Touchtown. Tabled a vote to put new resident bios on the back side of monthly birthday list.

Movie Club: Will be posted on Touchtown, with added information about the movie.
