Wednesday May 26, 2022

Members attending:

Ron Larkin DOHospitality, Tim Broad RAC REP, Hugh Howarth Secretary, Carolyn Bethea,

Excused: Chair Joe Birnbaum, Leslie Anderson, Angie Gnann, Sam Montana

Absent: Barbara Morris, Doug Roderick

Called to order at 2:04pm by Secretary Howarth. Quorum not present

Approved Minutes of February 16, 2022 were sent to RAC.

Old Business:

Ongoing quest for resident tennis and pickleball players

New Business:

RAC Fair held on May 13, 2022. Table manned by Birnbaum and Howarth. Many lookers but no signups.

At fair, Chair Birnbaum spoke to RAC President Ron Sweet requesting expanding Racket Committee to include Shuffleboard and Corn -Hole Toss. Apparently, 2 years ago a proposal to increase the committee was made and was rejected at that time. President Sweet said he would reintroduce motion.

Suggestion at Racket Sports Committee meeting was to name new committee: "RAC Courts Committee".

Ron Larkin said the Corn-Hole Toss Kick off Party would be 9:00 am on Wednesday June 8th on the former Bocci Ball court which has been removed and resurfaced for a Corn-Hole Toss court.

Instruction, refreshments will be provided. The use of Corn-Hole Toss will be for residents only on a daily basis. Residents will be able to get keys for the boards from the Pro Shop or in the Recreation Building at GVT. Maintenance will be asked to titivate area with flowers and benches. Siby will mark off official Corn-Hole distance with tape.

Racket Sports' Mission Statement will need to be updated to reflect new activities.

Meeting closed at 2:33 pm by Secretary Howarth

Next meeting:

Wednesday in July at 2pm in 3rd floor Conference Room.

Date to be determined

Respectfully submitted,
Hugh Howarth
Secretary
