Meeting called to order at 10:30am

OPEN BUSINESS:

- Four-year terms for Stan Zarinsky and Virginia Ewing's service on the committee will end July 1st.
- Freedom Plaza 31st Anniversary Celebration is scheduled for Thursday, July 13th.
- Suggestion was made to adjust PopUp Party name to PopUp Surprise or similar.
- Activities Department will adjust the printed materials for the Columbia/Snake River Cruise to reflect additional information for residents interested in the trip.
- Regarding the proposed Formal Event: request was made to use the term "Dress Up" attire instead of "Formal" attire. The committee also shared their preference for this event to happen in the evening and to include a small dance floor and a band.
- Consensus was reached not to pursue a Freedom Plaza Talent Show at this time.
- Two new exercise classes (Stretch, Flex & Tone and Aerobic Dance) will begin in the early fall. Classes will be in the morning, due to the instructor's availability.
- Research will continue for additional Lecture Series that does not interfere with Grad School's annual fall semester.
- Are Philip Leto Lectures permitted to be filmed for those that are unable to attend?
- 3rd quarter WEEKEND in-house event is scheduled for August 12th but could change to August 19th.
